CLIENT SUCCESS STORY

>>> FAMILY'S NIGHTMARE TRIP ENDS IN JUSTICE

While on a cross-country trip from Pennsylvania to the Redwoods Forest in California, the Doe Family traveled through the Tri-Cities when they encountered a sudden snowstorm on I-82 south of Kennewick. The family of four pulled to the side of the road as white-out conditions began to form. They could see and hear other vehicles colliding around them when they were violently struck by another vehicle.

The collision caused severe injuries to each family member, and after finally being discharged from the hospital and returning to Pennsylvania, the family contacted Tamaki Law to investigate. The family did not know who hit them, and the police report indicated that more than a dozen vehicles were involved in multiple collisions, but it was unclear who had hit the family vehicle.

After months of investigation, including reviewing 911 calls, interviewing dozens of witnesses, and talking to emergency responders, we learned that a tow truck responding to an earlier collision was driving too fast for conditions and smashed into the family vehicle.

Despite that evidence, the tow truck denied liability, and Tamaki Law filed suit against it and eight other drivers suspected of contributing to the collision. After years of litigation, the case settled for more than $1,500,000, which was the collective insurance policy limits of all defendants.

If you or a loved one have been involved in a serious accident and need dedicated legal representation, don't hesitate to reach out. Contact Tamaki Law today for a free consultation and let us help you fight for the justice and compensation you deserve.

COMMUNITY FOCUS

▶▶▶ MAKING A DIFFERENCE AT RIDGEVIEW

2

Recently, our Yakima team had the incredible opportunity to support the young women at Ridgeview, a low-security facility dedicated to helping female youth reintegrate into the community. We came together to assemble gifts filled with essentials and personal items tailored to each resident's needs and preferences.

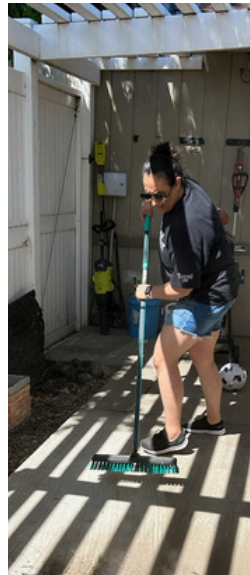

After delivering the packages, we enjoyed a lunch with the young women, watched them excitedly open their gifts, and received a tour of the facility. It was a beautiful day spent sharing stories and getting to know these resilient young ladies. This experience was not only rewarding but also reinforced our commitment to making a positive difference in our communities.

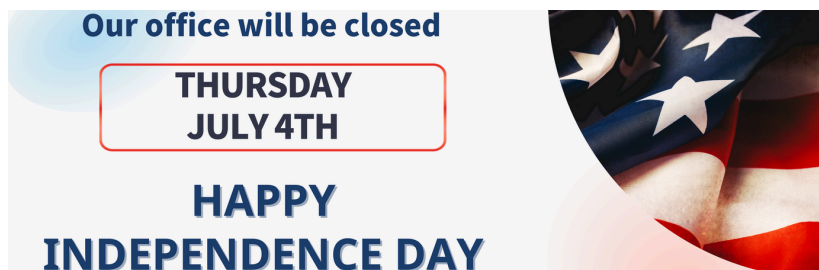

HELPING HANDS AT MY FRIENDS' PLACE ◀◀◀

Our Tri-Cities office recently volunteered at My Friend's Place, a nonprofit dedicated to providing essential services to homeless teenagers. This organization offers a safe haven, providing beds, meals, clothing, showers, laundry facilities, and other critical necessities.

Our team helped with various tasks around the facility, including outdoor weeding, patio cleanup, organizing craft and linen closets, and cleaning the fridge. The experience was deeply rewarding for everyone involved. It was a wonderful opportunity to step away from our desks and contribute to the well-being of vulnerable community members. We are proud of our team's dedication to community service and look forward to more opportunities to give back.

A.B.

"This place went above and beyond and exceeded my expectations for an attorney. I am proud to say I will recommend them to anyone for their attorney needs. They were consistent the entire process and never did I have any kind of doubt or anything negative to say about this place. They are very professional and they know the ends and outs of their job."

M.B.

"I wholeheartedly recommend Tamaki Law to anyone seeking top-notch legal representation. Their integrity, expertise, and unwavering dedication make them a standout choice when looking for a personal injury attorney in Washington. I look forward to continuing to work with Tamaki Law in the future."
